Cash you would need to drop off at the office or hand to me. Zelle you can send to counselingoakcreek@gmail.com.

2. Cancellations

Clients are expected to attend all scheduled appointments and will be charged fees for missed appointments. Office policy is a 24-hour notice to cancel appointment. The specific cancellation policy for missed sessions will be agreed upon between you and your therapist.

3. Communication

Your therapist will give you their confidential voice mail number during the initial session. Please use that number for messages. If for some reason you cannot reach your therapist that way, please call the agency's answering machine at 1-888-637-7404.

4. Confidentiality

Any and all information shared between you and your therapist is confidential and will only be shared under the following conditions.

1. Therapist share session information with their supervisors and OCRCC clinical staff for the purposes of training.
2. You authorize the release of information in writing for the purposes of consultation.
3. Therapists are required by law to report child, elder or adult dependent abuse to the appropriate agency.
4. Therapists are required to intervene appropriately with threats of serious harm to yourself or others. This could require reporting to police or appropriate agency.
5. A court of law subpoenas information for a legal proceeding.

5. Courts

"Due to the nature of the therapeutic process and the fact that it often involves making a full disclosure with regard to many matters which may be of a confidential nature. I agree that neither I nor my attorney nor anyone else acting on my behalf will call on (_____) to become a witness to testify in court, communicate with child custody evaluator/s, or any other proceeding, or request a disclosure of the psychotherapy records."

6. Your Rights

You have the right to receive a “Good Faith Estimate” explaining how much your medical and mental health care will cost. Under the law, health care providers need to give patients who don’t have insurance or who are not using insurance an estimate of the expected charges for medical services, including psychotherapy services. You have the right to receive a Good Faith Estimate for the total expected cost of any non-emergency healthcare services, including psychotherapy services. You can ask your health care provider, and any other provider you choose, for a Good Faith Estimate before you schedule a service. If you receive a bill that is at least $400 more than your Good Faith Estimate, you can dispute the bill. Make sure to save a copy or picture of your Good Faith Estimate. For questions or more information about your right to a Good Faith Estimate, visit www.cms.gov/nosurprises
